

Audio file

1973-10-03 - 11 - Cincinnati Reds met playoff in national league.mp3

Transcript

00:00:01

What more I will this is Jim Simpson coming up next Baltimore to Oakland and the fourth game of the American League championship at the end of two. Oakland leads it by the score of three to nothing and at Vito Blue and the A's win. That and the Mets win this. It means Saturday will be on the air from Oakland, CA. But New York and Oakland don't think it's presumptuous.

00:00:20

That's just if the scores stand up, there's no guarantee that either score will our seven to two score or the three to nothing, score out and open 8th inning. Perez, bench and Griffey to face Tom Siebert.

00:00:33

And a seven to two ball game.

00:00:40

23rd 24.

00:00:42

Horas one for three today, he drove in the only earned run at the Reds hand.

00:00:50

Rows double the left and with two out Perez single right scoring feed rolls.

00:00:56

Gets a curveball hit off the end of his bat into the Mets dugout.

00:01:14

Another curveball.

00:01:17

See.

00:01:18

I would love to get.

00:01:18

Three men in order here.

00:01:20

Because if he does in the 9th inning, he would be facing the 789 battles.

00:01:28

One ball, 2 strikes.

00:01:30

The thing right there, Jim and this good this game right here at this inning.

00:01:34

It could be a very deciding inning for Tom Seaver and the Mets because the reason you just pointed out.

00:01:43

Basketball struck him out.

00:01:48

Struck out 12 on Saturday. That's the 4th strike out today.

00:01:53

Well, you know, you got A5 on leave when you give Tony Perez a good fastball hitter, 1 blazing fastball letter high, and he got it. Here is bench walked intensely in the first round it out and popped up five for 18 in the series, gets the curveball strike.

00:01:57

Well.

00:02:13

Seven to two New York. We are in the eighth and the deciding game of the National League.

00:02:17

Championship.

00:02:24

Another curveball. Strike two. Remember, Matlack struck out fence in the 9th inning Sunday afternoon in that five to nothing game on a curveball comes back with another one bounding ball. Big hop to Garrett throws on the first base to two.

00:02:41

And saver has disposed of Perez and Ben.

00:02:48

Out in Oakland, CA, here's what's going on out there at the end of two, Jim Palmer has been knocked out by the blue, hasn't given up a hit, and Oakland leads 3 to nothing.

00:02:59

After two here's Ken Griffey, one for three today, one for six in the series, and he gets the fastball treatment beyond Seever goes on to the 9th inning. We'll face the 7th, 8th, and 9th batter. No runs, no hits, no errors. Nonetheless, we go to the last of the 8th.

00:03:19

New York leading 7 to 2 and looking better.

00:03:21

All the time.